MAY HIGHLIGHTS

Meet the Artists | 5/2 5:30-7:30 Victor Beltran presents his collections: Cook Forest, Fox Chapel area Fallingwater and Pittsburgh cityscapes watercolors from 1910. Victor will demonstrate his techniques, exhibit his travel sketchbooks and unique tools. Each attendant will receive a signed copy of a pen-and-ink drawing of Fallingwater as a gift. Potter, Shabnam Mirchandani will also present the rich spiritual background of her colorful exuberant mosaic pottery also on display at the library. Light refreshments will be provided. No registration required.

Music Sunday | 5/6 2:00-3:00 Enjoy the beautiful sounds of Pittsburgh Symphony violist, Penny Brill. $3/person or $5/family at the door. Penny Brill has been a member of the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra's viola section since 1980 and is best known for her innovative work with the use of music in health care. No registration required.

Aromatouch Hand Technique Workshop | 5/7 6:30-8:00 Emily Cagwin will help you discover the aromatouch hand technique with doTERRA essential oils. Similar to massage, it's a way to apply essential oils to optimize relaxation. There will be a demonstration and a chance for participation. Several oils will be on-hand and Emily will also explain various ways to work with essential oils. Please register.

Afternoon Tea with Tupelo Honey Teas | 5/18 2:00-4:00 Join us for a sweet afternoon tea with Tupelo Honey Teas from Millvale all about iced tea to celebrate spring! We'll have scones, cookies and mini-savory treats. Danielle from THP will share a presentation all about the world of iced teas. This is a BYOG event (Bring Your Own Glass) so be sure and bring your favorite glass iced tea glass with which to enjoy your beverage. $10 fee. Registration required.

Author Marie Benedict | 5/23 6:30-8:00 Author Marie Benedict will be here to talk about her newest historical fiction, Carnegie's Maid, published this past January. The reviews are stunning and the story will captivate you! Hear all about what led Benedict to this tale and her personal connection to Andrew Carnegie himself! Please register.
