COMMUNITY LIBRARY

OCTOBER HIGHLIGHTS

Health and Aging: Aging and Your Bones | 10/3 6:30-8:00 Join Mary Lee Beach from Oakmont Orthopaedic to learn more about bone health as you age. Mary Lee will address balance issues, muscle weakness, joint stiffness, medications and living a sedentary life. There will also be a chance to take a balance test and participate in several prevention exercises.

BYOB Game Night | 10/6 5:00-9:00 Cooper-Siegel's board game night is back and better than ever! With an expanded after-hours time-slot, more games, and more people to mix, mingle, compete, and collaborate with! Feel free to bring your favorite beer, wine or any other drink (no hard liquor). Ages 21+. Please bring a valid photo ID as we will be checking! Register online.

Hidden History of Pittsburgh | 10/13 1:00-3:00 George Washington spent many nights sleeping under the stars, in Indian encampments or in primitive cabins during his multiple journeys to Southwestern Pennsylvania in the 1750s. Local Historian, Len Barcoucky will bring the stories of young Washington's early adventures to life, using primary sources that include his journals and letters.

Fall Hikes with Allegheny Parks | 10/16 5:00-7:00 and 10/22 7:30-9:30 Hike with us this fall at Hartwood Acres! Park rangers will guide hikers on 2 different and seasonal hikes: a fall foliage hike where you'll learn about native trees (10/16) and and a full moon hike where you'll learn the tricky art of nighttime navigation (10/22). Ages 13+.

Apple Butter Making with Threadbare | 10/18 6:00-8:00 Join Pastry Chef Elise Miranda from Threadbare Cider House for an interactive presentation on Apple Butter making! Taste a sample of apple butter and take home a recipe card. $5, please register online.

Haunted Hat Tea | 10/27 1:00-3:00 Storyteller Alan Irvine is our special guest at this festive high tea catered by Ladyfingers. Wear a seasonal hat and be prepared for tasty treats and spooky tales. Adults 18+. $35 register and pay online.
