

JULY 30 | WEEK 7

keep us posted on your summer: #CSCLlibrary

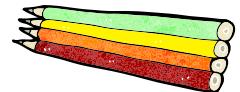

SUMMER SAMPLER

right up there with a good sunset

COLORING PAGES

Looking for some seriously beautiful coloring pages? A fun artist, Alisa Burke frequently offers her blog readers elaborate pages to DL. Here are some for your coloring pleasure. Click on a link below to download, print and color!

- Flowers
- Hearts and Ice Cream
- More Flowers
- Even More Flowers
- Fall Leaves
- Succulents

ROSELEA FARMS Just a sweet little getaway in Coraopolis

A Swiss farmhouse built in 1905 where you can hike, enjoy the beautiful and lovingly tended gardens, appreciate the new greenhouse or take a selfie with Rick the Donkey and his goats. Need a weekend getaway? You can also book a room at the B&B and spend a quiet weekend just outside of the city. Find out more here.

SKILLSHARE AND YOUR SUMMER BUCKET LIST

Take a look at some great summer-related courses on Skillshare. You can get a FREE 30-day membership with your CSCL library card. More info on how to do that here. Some classes to think about: Summer Beach Painting in Guache; Cheese and Herb Pie; Summer Photography; Google Summer of Code; Brazilian BBQ; The Truth About Coffee; Watercolor for Kids; All About Tomatoes or Summer Tabletop Stylings!

PODCASTS FOR A BIGGER LIFE

Invisibilia: This NPR podcast about "the invisible forces that control human ideas, beliefs, assumptions, and emotions" is fascinating! Lulu Miller, Hanna Rosin, and Alix Spiegel co-host this robust look into our inner lives and motivations. Invisibilia interweaves narrative storytelling with scientific research that will ultimately make you see your own life differently. DL it on iTunes or Google Play and find out more about it here.

OnBeing, one of the most inspiring podcasts around describes itself as one that addresses the big questions of meaning and its host, Krista Tippet invites thinkers, artists, dancers, poets, scientists, politicians, musicians, athletes and anyone who has something to say about what it means to live a life with meaning. It's a gorgeous exploration every week and has helped me remember to take time to think and feel more deeply. Here is a link to their most listened to episodes of 2016. Great place to start!

BEATRIX POTTER

Beatrix Potter born on July 28th 1866 in London, England. She was of course a children's author, but also a powerful conservationist, natural scientist, a prize-winning Herdwick sheep breeder, and was well respected in the field of mycology! Some podcasts and books to enjoy and learn more about her!

- Yesterladies podcast episode about Beatrix
- Beatrix Potter: a Life in Nature
- Beatrix Potter's Journal
- The Beatrix Potter Giant Treasury
- Beatrix Potter's Art: Drawings and Paintings
- Letters to Children from Beatrix Potter
- At Home with Beatrix Potter
- Beatrix Potter's Gardening Life

NATIONAL HOT DOG DAY

Our beloved Adult Services Librarian, Stacie comes from a family obsessed with getting their chili recipe just right for their hot dogs. While National Hot Dog Day was July 22nd, enjoy their go-to recipe to top the rest of your summer dogs!

SUMMER BREAKFASTS

In the fall and winter, we gravitate to warm dishes that tend to take more time to make. Summer breakfasts on the other hand are usually quick, cold but still tasty and filling! This one happens to be warm and it's got quinoa! Top with some fruit, put it in a beautiful bowl and your day is MADE! Here's the recipe!

BLINKIST

The App: gives you tiny, bite-sized book summaries of great business books in blinks that you can either read or listen to. The free version gives you 1 book a day! Find out more here.

Simplify! the Podcast: The podcast gives you a better way to do the things you do everyday. How about a better way to be a partner? A better way to eat yogurt? A better way to store wrapping paper! It's all here!

Cooper-Siegel
COMMUNITY LIBRARY

UPCOMING VIRTUAL EVENTS

- Meditation 7/30 @ 6:30
- Media Chat with Brad and Kelley 7/30 @ 4:30
- Adventures Outside the Burgh 7/31 (anytime!)
- Museum Spotlight Lecture 8/4 @ 5:00

Register and find out more here