NOVEMBER HIGHLIGHTS

How to Sew with Grace Coffelt 11/3, 11/10 & 11/17 | 7 4:30-6:00

 Local teen and sewing enthusiast, Grace Coffelt, will provide sewing tips and tricks over the first three Tuesdays in November. For ages 10 and up; adults welcome! Grace will provide tutorials and practical advice for how to add pockets to clothes, hemming clothes, and basic clothing repair. You'll receive the unique Zoom link in the registration confirmation email. We will also share what materials to have in order to follow along with Grace on Zoom each week.

Elder Law and Estate Planning 11/6 | 12:00-1:00

Join Lori Capone and Michael Marks for a presentation on some important aspects of elder law. They will discuss estate planning and administration, long-term care, issues around wills and power of attorney, Medicare/Medicaid and Guardianship.

Pet Show and Tell 11/7 | 11:00-12:00

Please join our virtual program, during which we will sing songs and talk about some of our favorite animals. Bring along your pet (or your favorite stuffed animal) and introduce them to us! For grades K-5.

After Hours Teen Open Mic Night 11/13 | 6:00-8:00

Looking to show off your talent? Want to compete for prizes? Sign up for an open mic night @ the library and show the world what you got on Facebook Live. Ages 12-18 can share songs, poetry, prose, or whatever you think can wow the internet and win a prize. Those that enter will perform from the library program room and your performance will be shared live on Facebook. Please register because space is limited!

NASA: Galaxy Quest 11/22 | 8:00-9:00

Join professor and pilot, Mark Guillette to take a journey into some of the coolest aspects of the galaxies within our universe. Take part in a YouTube Live event with an interactive live chat feature. Q and A will be available throughout the presentation. All ages welcome! Hop on 5 minutes before the start time.
