

Join us on a rich content ride every Thursday this summer.
It's going to be better than last year, that's for sure!

CELL PHONES PREDICTED IN 1963!

A newspaper article from 1963 predicted a phone that you'd one day be able to put in your pocket. AND, even more surprising, in 1926, inventor Nikola Tesla predicted that in the future people across the world would be able to communicate instantly with one another with devices that fit inside a vest pocket.

Every week this summer, enjoy a quick 1-minute review of a book, movie, TV show or album by one of our Media Squad members. We're a group of passionate library staffers who love nothing more than chatting about our recent media likes and dislikes. Our mission is to inspire tons of media consumption and match the right media with the right person. Find your next favorite book on our reviews playlist HERE.
